Re: Request for Federal Investigation/Intervention

Dear Mr. Holder,

The Federal investigation in the 80s, Operation Lost Trust, regarding S.C. legislators was successful. It appears to me, clearly, that the current problems investigating allegations of corruption are being decided by people with obvious conflicts of interest. As background, I've enclosed some in depth news articles from The Nerve and The State Newspaper.

Please review the circumstances to determine any appropriate Federal intervention that would review/investigate the allegations without blatant conflicts of interest. The S.C. Legislature elects judges who decide these issues.

Cordially,

D. Dusty Rhoades
